

Data Retention (GDPR) Policy

1. Introduction

This Policy sets out the obligations of Ionyx Pty Ltd a company registered in Australia under number 605 061 327, whose registered office is at Level 3, 243 Edward Street, Brisbane, Queensland Australia (“the Company”) regarding retention of personal data collected, held, and processed by the Company in accordance with EU Regulation 2016/679 General Data Protection Regulation (“GDPR”).

The GDPR defines “personal data” as any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person (a “data subject”). An identifiable natural person is one who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as a name, an identification number, location data, an online identifier, or to one or more factors specific to the physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural, or social identity of that natural person.

The GDPR also addresses “special category” personal data (also known as “sensitive” personal data). Such data includes, but is not necessarily limited to, data concerning the data subject’s race, ethnicity, politics, religion, trade union membership, genetics, biometrics (if used for ID purposes), health, sex life, or sexual orientation.

Under the GDPR, personal data shall be kept in a form which permits the identification of data subjects for no longer than is necessary for the purposes for which the personal data is processed. In certain cases, personal data may be stored for longer periods where that data is to be processed for archiving purposes that are in the public interest, for scientific or historical research, or for statistical purposes (subject to the implementation of the appropriate technical and organisational measures required by the GDPR to protect that data).

In addition, the GDPR includes the right to erasure or “the right to be forgotten”. Data subjects have the right to have their personal data erased (and to prevent the processing of that personal data) in the following circumstances:

1. Where the personal data is no longer required for the purpose for which it was originally collected or processed (see above);
2. When the data subject withdraws their consent;
3. When the data subject objects to the processing of their personal data and the Company has no overriding legitimate interest;
4. When the personal data is processed unlawfully (i.e. in breach of the GDPR);
5. When the personal data has to be erased to comply with a legal obligation; or

6. Where the personal data is processed for the provision of information society services to a child.

This Policy sets out the type(s) of personal data held by the Company, the period(s) for which that personal data is to be retained, the criteria for establishing and reviewing such period(s), and when and how it is to be deleted or otherwise disposed of.

For further information on other aspects of data protection and compliance with the GDPR, please refer to the Company's Data Protection Policy.

2. Aims and Objectives

The primary aim of this Policy is to set out limits for the retention of personal data and to ensure that those limits, as well as further data subject rights to erasure, are complied with. By extension, this Policy aims to ensure that the Company complies fully with its obligations and the rights of data subjects under the GDPR.

In addition to safeguarding the rights of data subjects under the GDPR, by ensuring that excessive amounts of data are not retained by the Company, this Policy also aims to improve the speed and efficiency of managing data.

3. Scope

1. This Policy applies to all personal data held by the Company.
2. Personal data, as held by the Company is stored in the following ways and in the following locations:
 - a. The Company's servers, hosted by AWS located in Australia and the United Kingdom.

- m. Computers used to view personal data must always be locked before being left unattended;
- n. No personal data should be stored on any mobile device, whether such device belongs to the Company or otherwise without the formal written approval of the IT Manager and then strictly in accordance with all instructions and limitations described at the time the approval is given, and for no longer, than is absolutely necessary;
- o. No personal data should be transferred to any device personally belonging to an employee and personal data may only be transferred to devices belonging to agents, contractors, or other parties working on behalf of the Company where the party in question has agreed to comply fully with the Company's Data Protection Policy and the GDPR;
- p. All personal data stored electronically should be backed up daily with backups stored offsite. All backups should be encrypted;
- q. All electronic copies of personal data should be stored securely using passwords and encryption;
- r. All passwords used to protect personal data should be changed regularly and should must be secure;
- s. Under no circumstances should any passwords be written down or shared. If a password is forgotten, it must be reset using the applicable method. IT staff do not have access to passwords;
- t. All software should be kept up-to-date. Security-related updates should be installed as soon as reasonably possible after becoming available;
- u. No software may be installed on any Company-owned computer or device without approval; and
- v. Where personal data held by the Company is used for marketing purposes, it shall be the responsibility of the IT Manager to ensure that the appropriate consent is obtained and that no data subjects have opted out, whether directly or via a third-party service such as the TPS.

2. The following organisational measures are in place within the Company to protect the security of personal data. Please refer to Part 27 of the Company's Data Protection Policy for further details:
 - a. All employees and other parties working on behalf of the Company shall be made fully aware of both their individual responsibilities and the Company's responsibilities under the GDPR and under the Company's Data Protection Policy;
 - b. Only employees and other parties working on behalf of the Company that need access to, and use of, personal data in order to perform their work shall have access to personal data held by the Company;
 - c. All employees and other parties working on behalf of the Company handling personal data will be appropriately trained to do so;
 - d. All employees and other parties working on behalf of the Company handling personal data will be appropriately supervised;
 - e. All employees and other parties working on behalf of the Company handling personal data should exercise care and caution when discussing any work relating to personal data at all times;
 - f. Methods of collecting, holding, and processing personal data shall be regularly evaluated and reviewed;
 - g. The performance of those employees and other parties working on behalf of the Company handling personal data shall be regularly evaluated and reviewed;
 - h. All employees and other parties working on behalf of the Company handling personal data will be bound by contract to comply with the GDPR and the Company's Data Protection Policy;
 - i. All agents, contractors, or other parties working on behalf of the Company handling personal data must ensure that any and all relevant employees are held to the same conditions as those relevant employees of the Company arising out of the GDPR and the Company's Data Protection Policy;
 - j. Where any agent, contractor or other party working on behalf of the Company handling personal data fails in their obligations under the GDPR and/or the Company's Data Protection Policy, that party shall indemnify and hold harmless the Company against any costs, liability, damages, loss, claims or proceedings which may arise out of that failure.

6. Data Disposal

Upon the expiry of the data retention periods set out below in Part 7 of this Policy, or when a data subject exercises their right to have their personal data erased, personal data held in electronic form shall be deleted from the companies servers, desktop computers, mobile devices and all backup media. Data held in paper form shall be securely shredded and disposed of by our approved contractors.

7. Data Retention

1. As stated above, and as required by law, the Company shall not retain any personal data for any longer than is necessary in light of the purpose(s) for which that data is collected, held, and processed.
2. Different types of personal data, used for different purposes, will necessarily be retained for different periods (and its retention periodically reviewed), as set out below.
3. When establishing and/or reviewing retention periods, the following shall be taken into account:
 - a. The objectives and requirements of the Company;
 - b. The type of personal data in question;
 - c. The purpose(s) for which the data in question is collected, held, and processed;
 - d. The Company's legal basis for collecting, holding, and processing that data;
 - e. The category or categories of data subject to whom the data relates;
4. If a precise retention period cannot be fixed for a particular type of data, criteria shall be established by which the retention of the data will be determined, thereby ensuring that the data in question, and the retention of that data, can be regularly reviewed against those criteria.
5. Notwithstanding the following defined retention periods, certain personal data may be deleted or otherwise disposed of prior to the expiry of its defined retention period where a decision is made within the Company to do so (whether in response to a request by a data subject or otherwise).

- In limited circumstances, it may also be necessary to retain personal data for longer periods where such retention is for archiving purposes that are in the public interest, for scientific or historical research purposes, or for statistical purposes. All such retention will be subject to the implementation of appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect the rights and freedoms of data subjects, as required by the GDPR.
